Matthew 13:31-33

31 Then Jesus taught them another parable: "Heaven's kingdom realm can be compared to the tiny mustard seed that a man takes and plants in his field. 32 Although the smallest of all the seeds, it eventually grows into the greatest of garden plants, becoming a tree for birds to come and build their nests in its branches."

33 Then he taught them another parable: "Heaven's kingdom realm can be compared to yeast that a woman takes and blends into three measures of flour and then waits until all the dough rises."

Core values

- Jesus first, only and foremost, pursued with whole hearts
- Love relentlessly, in the ways Jesus does
- Holy Spirit is sovereign, personal, present, trusted and free to direct and rule
- Heaven's culture and thinking: Explore, learn, dare, and live it out
- God is sovereign. God is good. God knows the end from the start. All theology starts there.
